Genesis 15 <sup>13</sup> God said to Abram “Your descendants will be slaves in a foreign land and will be oppressed for 400 years. <sup>14</sup> But then I will judge the nation that enslaves them. When that time comes, your descendants will emerge with great wealth! “judge” Strong’s: diyn (deen): ACT AS JUDGE, GOVERN, MINISTER JUDGMENT, PLEAD A CAUSE (ADVOCATE), VINDICATE, EXECUTE JUDGMENT.

Exodus 13 <sup>16</sup> This ceremony will be like a mark branded on your hand or your forehead. It is a reminder that the power of the Lord’s mighty hand brought us out of Egypt. <sup>17</sup> When Pharaoh finally let the people go, God did not lead them along the main road that runs through Philistine territory, even though that was the shortest route to the Promised Land. God said, “If the people are faced with a battle, they might change their minds and return to Egypt.” <sup>18</sup> So God led them in a roundabout way through the wilderness toward the Red Sea, Thus the Israelites left Egypt like an army ready for battle.

Exodus 14 <sup>3</sup> Then Pharaoh will think, ‘The Israelites are confused. They are trapped in the wilderness!’ <sup>4</sup> And once again I will harden Pharaoh’s heart, and he will chase after you. I have planned this in order to display my glory through Pharaoh and his whole army. After this the Egyptians will know that I am the Lord! So the Israelites camped there as they were told. <sup>5</sup> When word reached the king of Egypt that the Israelites had fled, Pharaoh and his officials changed their minds. “What have we done, letting all those Israelite slaves get away?” they asked. <sup>8</sup> The Lord hardened the heart of Pharaoh, the king of Egypt, so he chased after the people of Israel, who had left with fists raised in defiance. <sup>9</sup> The Egyptians chased after them with all the forces in Pharaoh’s army—all his horses and chariots, his charioteers, and his troops. The Egyptians caught up with the people of Israel as they were camped beside the shore near Pi-hahiroth, across from Baal-zephon. <sup>13</sup> But Moses told the people, ‘Don’t be afraid. Just stand still and watch the Lord rescue you today. The Egyptians you see today will never be seen again. The Lord himself will fight for you. Just stay calm.’ <sup>15</sup> Then the Lord said to Moses, “Why are you crying out to me? Tell the people to get moving! <sup>16</sup> Pick up your staff and raise your hand over the sea. Divide the water so the Israelites can walk through the middle of the sea on dry ground. <sup>17</sup> And I will harden the hearts of the Egyptians, and they will charge in after the Israelites. My great glory will be displayed through Pharaoh and his troops, his chariots, and his charioteers. <sup>18</sup> When my glory is displayed through them, all Egypt will see my glory and know that I am the Lord! <sup>22</sup> So the people of Israel walked through the middle of the sea on dry ground, with walls of water on each side! <sup>25</sup> He twisted their chariot wheels, making their chariots difficult to drive. “Let’s get out of here—away from these Israelites!” the Egyptians shouted. The Lord is fighting for them against Egypt! <sup>28</sup> Then the waters returned and covered all the chariots and charioteers—the entire army of Pharaoh. Of all the Egyptians who had chased the Israelites into the sea, not a single one survived. <sup>29</sup> But the people of Israel had walked through the middle of the sea on dry ground, as the water stood up like a wall on both sides. <sup>30</sup> That is how the Lord rescued Israel from the hand of the Egyptians that day. And the Israelites saw the bodies of the Egyptians washed up on the seashore. <sup>31</sup> When the people of Israel saw the mighty power that the Lord had unleashed against the Egyptians, they were filled with awe before him. They put their faith in the Lord and in his servant Moses. NLT

Jeremiah 11 <sup>13</sup> Look now, people of Judah; you have as many gods as you have towns. You have as many altars of shame—altars for burning incense to your god Baal—as there are streets in Jerusalem. <sup>14</sup> Pray no more for these people, Jeremiah. Do not weep or pray for them, for I will not listen to them when they cry out to me in distress. NLT
